STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of total tuition fees paid, minus the $250 non-refundable deposit, through the second class session or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student’s written notice or by the student’s conduct, including, but not limited to, a student’s lack of attendance. Final day to with draw from this course April 29 2017. Refunds are paid within 10 business days. Withdrawal is determined by mutual notification of student and teacher, rather than the last day attended.

Loans Esalen Institute does not participate in a loan program. If the student obtains a loan, the student will have to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from the federal student financial aid program funds. If a student defaults on a Federal, State or private loan, a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government financial assistance until the loan is paid.

Refunds have the following stipulations: If you withdraw from the course on or before the second day, your full tuition will be refunded. If you withdraw from the course after instruction has started you will receive a pro rata refund for the unused portion of the tuition, effective the date of your withdrawal notice, if you have completed 60% or less of the instruction. For example, if you received 25 hours of a 250-hour training, you would have attended 10% and would receive a tuition refund for the remaining 90%. Room and board refunds are pro rated on a room and board basis, less the required Esalen room deposit. After you complete 60% of the training, no tuition refund is available.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from the federal student financial aid program funds. Course withdrawal and refunds are handled by the Esalen Front Office open 9-4 daily.

Deposits are due upon registration. Total remaining fees are due upon arrival at Esalen although it is more convenient to pay them earlier. Fees include mandated tuition recovery fund fees per Section 94921, Education code AB48, currently no charge.

Student Tuition Recovery Fund This fund insures California Residents from School defaults. The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by students in educational programs who are California residents, or are enrolled in a residency program attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education.

"You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

1. You are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all of part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and

2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment if either of the following applies:

1. You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program, or
2. Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party."

"The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by students in educational programs who are California residents, or are enrolled in a residency program attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education.

You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
2. The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.
3. The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.
4. There was a material failure to comply with the Act or the Division within 30-days before the school closed or, if the material failure began earlier than 30-days prior to closure, the period determined by the Bureau.
5. An inability after diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect on a judgment against the institution for a violation of the Act."

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

It is important that you keep copies of the enrollment agreement, financial aid papers, receipts or any other information that documents the monies paid the school.
