R. D. LAING wore many robes in his career including psychiatrist, psychoanalyst, philosopher, social critic, author, poet, and mystic, and at the peak of his fame in the 1970s he was the most widely-read psychiatrist in the world. Arguably the most controversial psychoanalyst since Freud, Laing’s meteoric rise in the 1960s was the result of his rare ability to make complex ideas accessible with such best-selling classics as The Divided Self (1960), * Sanity, Madness and Family* (1964), The Politics of Experience (1967), Knots (1970), and many others. Laing’s impassioned plea for a more humane treatment of those in society who are most vulnerable catapulted him into the vanguard of intellectual and cultural debate about the nature of sanity and madness, and inspired a generation of psychology students, intellectuals, and artists to turn this disarming Scotsman into a social icon.

Now, in the fifth edition of our annual event, Laing’s former students and colleagues from around the world, including Fritjof Capra, Michael Guy Thompson, Douglas Kirsner, Nita Gage, and others will meet for five days at Esalen Institute in Big Sur, California, to continue our critique of Laing’s contemporary legacy. In previous years we explored the nature of sanity and madness, the therapeutic relationship, altered realities, and love. This year we will continue our conversation by exploring one of Laing’s favorite themes, the nature of authenticity. There is no better term to characterize Laing’s uncommonly ethical approach to clinical intervention. Joining us again will be some of the leading lights in the burgeoning Psychiatric Survivor Movement, including Will Hall, Dina Tyler, Michelle Anne Hobart, and others, to help us share alternatives to contemporary, often abusive psychiatric treatment for those in extreme mental and emotional distress.

Among the questions we will explore:
1. What is the relation between authenticity and morality?
2. What does authenticity tell us about the nature of character? honesty? genuineness? the self?
3. Does behaving authentically make us happier or simply less prone to deception?
4. How may the search for authenticity drive us mad? or lead to sanity?
5. Can one strive for authenticity... or is it inherently spontaneous?
6. How can we determine if we are genuinely coming into our own... or being narcissistic by another name?

PLUS A PRESENTATION OF THIS CLASSIC VIDEO FEATURING R.D. LAING
“Eros, Love & Lies,” directed by Mark Elliot
A documentary featuring Laing’s views about the nature of love and the importance of bringing honesty into our lives.

Join us for five days at breathtaking Esalen Institute on the Pacific Coast to explore how we can promote more humane and effective ways of helping those suffering from extreme states.

—MICHAEL GUY THOMPSON
SUNDAY – JULY 14
8:30 – 10:00 pm
Michael Guy Thompson, PhD, Fritjof Capra, PhD, and Nita Gage
Welcome! Let’s Get Acquainted!
We will spend this initial, breaking-in meeting to introduce ourselves to each other and give you an idea of what our five days together. We will begin with introducing the three principal faculty and organizers of our Laing Workshop to you, then the faculty, guest faculty, and finally a chance for everyone attending this special week to introduce yourselves and what you are hoping to gain from this experience.

MONDAY – JULY 15
9:30 – 10:30 am
Douglas Kirsner, PhD
Laing on Authenticity (moderated by Michael Guy Thompson)
Doug will explore how Laing, following Jean-Paul Sartre, explores the conundrums of behaving authentically in a world not of our choosing, by unmasking patterns of self-deception as well as the myriad occasions of deception encountered in ordinary familial and social relationships.

10:40 – 11:30 am
Nita Gage
Authenticity, Community & Self-Awareness (moderated by Fritjof Capra)
The only rule in the post-Kingsley Hall households around R. D. Laing was “be authentic!” One’s ability to live and thrive in the household communities depended on the wherewithal to give one’s heart to this task. Nita will explore the psychological and spiritual aspects of authenticity and how her experiences there have impacted her work as a therapist and guide for others.

11:40 am-12:30 pm
Rinat Tal, MD
Authenticity & Healing in Mental Health (moderated by Douglas Kirsner)
Rinat will call on her clinical experience to explore how authenticity is so essential to healing in the practice of both psychiatry and psychotherapy.

3:30 – 4:30 pm
Sanford Rosenberg, PhD
Dreamhacking: Turning into Dream Intelligence (DQ) (moderated by Andrew Turkington)
Personal mythology and the imaginal live at the boundary that media, technology, and movies create. Become a Dreamhacker. Discover your real self and tap the soul’s code, authentically. Go beyond your habitual ways of thinking. In this experiential session Sandy will introduce methods of working with embodied imagination and personal mythology.

4:40 – 5:30 pm
Heather LaFace, PhD
The Basic Fault: Experiences of Authenticity and Extreme States in a Clinical Context (moderated by Nita Gage)
Heather will examine the co-constituting factors between individual therapy and group process from a systems perspective in order to explore the relational dynamics between self experiences and authenticity.

5:30 – 6:30 pm
Michael cornall, PhD, Tonya Dowding, Will Hall, Michelle Anne Hobart, Heather LaFace, PhD, James Norwood, Connor Tindall, Andrew Turkington, LMFT, Dina Tyler
Break-Out Groups for Processing Today’s Presentations (moderated by Nita Gage and Michael Guy Thompson)
We will devote this 60-minute session to breaking up into small groups to discuss issues that came up for us in today’s program. This may include extending discussions that occurred earlier in the day or taking the opportunity to raise new issues and concerns. We will then reconvene as a large group to integrate what we learned from the break-out discussions.

6:30 – 8:00 pm
Dinner Break – followed by After Dinner Party and Soiree!
Dinner in the Esalen Dining Hall. Feel free to join us at a welcome party after dinner, hosted by Catherine and Scott in the historic Fritz House, for an evening of merriment and fun.
TUESDAY – JULY 16
9:30 am – 12:30 pm
Fritjof Capra, PhD, Michael Guy Thompson, PhD, Nita Gage, and Douglas Kirsner, PhD
A Dialogue on Authentic Community and the Dark Side of Authenticity (moderated by Douglas Kirsner)
In this three-hour session, Fritjof Capra and Michael Guy Thompson will take turns presenting their views about Laing, authenticity, and community, responding to each presentation in turn. This will be followed by a general discussion period with the audience.

PART I
9:30 – 11:00 am
Fritjof Capra, PhD
Authentic Community
Fritjof will discuss community from a systemic perspective and will offer several reasons for why building and nurturing communities is so vital for our time. Fritjof's talk will be followed by a discussion with Michael Guy Thompson, Nita Gage, and Douglas Kirsner, all of whom knew Laing intimately and will explore how Laing himself situated the notion of authentic community in the context of Kingsley Hall and kindred therapeutic communities in London, as well as the wider community of fellowship that he fashioned around him and his work.

PART II
11:30 am – 12:30 pm
Michael Guy Thompson, PhD
The Dark Side of Authenticity
Michael will call on his personal and professional relationship with Laing in 1970s London and then later, in his encounters with Laing in California, to explore Laing's personal relationship with authenticity. He will share vignettes of Laing's highly controversial manner of engaging colleagues and friends, and whether some of this behavior was genuinely authentic, or simply brutal. Followed by discussion.

12:30 – 3:30 pm
Lunch Break and Play Time
Lunch at the Dining Hall. Enjoy the rest of the break to relax and smell the ocean. Please return to the afternoon portion of today's program promptly at 3:30.

3:30 – 4:30 pm
Fernando Castrillon, PhD
Authenticity and the Audacity of Hopelessness
(modated by James Norwood)
Drawing on the existential sensibilities of Laing's work and the unsettling ontological pronouncements of Jacques Lacan, Fernando will explore how the current ecological and social collapse of contemporary society impacts therapists and analysts of all stripes.

4:40 – 5:30 pm
Scott Von, OMD, PhD
The Ethical Act: How to Authorize Oneself Beyond Madness
(modated by Will Hall)
Only an act of free will chosen from one's own desire and responsibility can qualify as ethical and authentic, and make one sane. To be authentic literally means "to work from oneself – from the place of the first person singular "I" without regard for the Other's concept of judgment – the true meaning of karma.

5:30 – 6:30 pm
Michael Cornwall, PhD, Tonya Dowding, Will Hall, Michelle Anne Hobart, Heather LaFace, PhD, James Norwood, Connor Tindall, Andy Turkington, LMFT, Dina Tyler
Break-Out Groups for Processing Today's Presentations
(modated by Nita Gage and Michael Guy Thompson)
We will devote this 60-minute session to breaking up into small groups to discuss issues that came up for us in today's program.

6:00 – 8:00 pm
Dinner Break – followed by R.D. Laing Video Event!
Dinner in the Esalen Dining Hall. Please return to the evening portion of today's program at 8:00 pm if you wish to join us for this special video event:

EROS, LOVE & LIES: How R.D. Laing Situated Love in Authenticity
(followed by a discussion with Michael Guy Thompson, Fritjof Capra and Nita Gage, Douglas Kirsner)
In this rare documentary R.D. Laing explores the dynamics of human relationships and the vital necessity of bringing honesty and authenticity into our lives. Recorded at lectures, seminars and interviews in Boulder, Colorado in 1987, Laing brings his sharp wit and wisdom to the topic of human relationships and the vital necessity of sincerity in human relationships.

WEDNESDAY – JULY 17
9:30 – 10:30 am
Nita Gage, Star Wolf, Dina Tyler, Michelle Anne Hobart, Will Hall, and Workshop Participants!
All-Day Breath Workshop – A Tribute to Laing's Famous Workshops from the 1970s (modated by Nita Gage)

Part I: Breath Work as a Way to Authenticity
Authenticity and Breath Work in the Tradition of R. D. Laing
Drawing from her own extensive experience moderating such workshops, Nita Gage will facilitate an opportunity for anyone who is interested in participating in this exercise to access mild altered states via guided imagery and deep breathing. This workshop is intended to simulate the kind of workshops Laing was famous for initiating in London among his students in order to gain greater awareness of the potential for expanded modes of consciousness readily accessible to us. This one-hour introduction will presage a two-hour morning session in which participants will participate in a breath work experiential exercise.

10:30 am – 12:30 pm

Part II: Breath Work Experiential Session (continued)
Experiential Exercise (moderated by Nita Gage)
Nita will facilitate the chance to experience states of expanded consciousness elicited via deep breathing and other Shamanic exercises, followed by the opportunity to process these experiences in a warm and safe environment. We will repeat this exercise in the afternoon portion of this all-day experiential exercise.

12:30 – 3:30 pm

Lunch Break and Play Time
Lunch at the Dining Hall. Enjoy the rest of the break to relax and smell the ocean. Please return to the afternoon portion of today’s program promptly at 3:30 pm.

3:30 – 5:30 pm

Part III: Breath Work Experiential Session (continued)
Experiential Exercise (moderated by Nita Gage)
In this two-hour session Nita will continue to facilitate the chance to experience states of expanded consciousness elicited via deep breathing exercises, followed by opportunities to process these experiences in a warm and safe environment.

5:30 – 6:30 pm

Part IV: Break up into small groups for processing today’s experience
Breath Work Group Process Session (moderated by Nita Gage)

6:30 – 8:00 pm

Dinner Break – followed by a FREE EVENING!
Dinner in the Esalen Dining Hall. Please enjoy the rest of your evening by the Fire Pit, the Terrace off the Dining Hall, or Esalen’s legendary Hot Tubs!

THURSDAY – JULY 18

9:30 – 10:20 am

Jack Gipple
Missing the Mark: Authenticity in the Craft of Windhorse Intensive Psychotherapy (moderated by Michael Guy Thompson)
Jack will discuss his experience as an Intensive Psychotherapist at Windhorse community via authenticity, an antidote to the frequent re-emergence of “asylum” mentality.

10:30 – 11:20 am

Michael Cornwall, PhD
A Sharing of Authentically-Based Practices (moderated by Will Hall)
Michael will explore helpful ways of being authentically open-hearted and emotionally vulnerable when being with people, based on 25,000 hours of being with people in extreme states.

11:30 am – 12:30 pm

Tonya Dowding, Sam Hinds, James Norwood, Connor Tindall
Meet the Students (moderated by Fernando Castrillon)
Several of the graduate students involved with Gnosis Retreat Center will discuss the stories that took them there and the profound experiences they found through their participation.

12:30 – 3:30 pm

Lunch Break and Play Time
Lunch at the Dining Hall. Enjoy the rest of the break to relax. Please return to the afternoon portion of today’s program promptly at 3:30.

3:30 – 4:30 pm

Will Hall
Authenticity, Shame and Psychosis (moderated by Nita Gage)
The altered, or open, consciousness labeled psychosis calls for a vulnerable honesty in response. How can therapists move beyond the boundaries of self to meet the existential challenge of madness... and invite the possibility of breakthrough?

4:40 – 5:30 pm

Dina Tyler
Authenticity in an Inauthentic World: How Madness Can Show Us the Way to Love (moderated by Michael Cornwall)
Fitting in by betraying yourself drives many of us to despair, madness, and suicide. The world seems to have no space for what our hearts truly desire: to be seen, felt, and known for who we really are. How can we risk madness for the sake of finding love?

5:30 – 6:30 pm

Andrew Turkington, RN, LMFT
Authenticity and False Modesty (moderated by Douglas Kirsner)
Just as pride is a barrier to authenticity so is false humility a barrier to genuineness.

6:30 – 8:00 pm

Dinner Break – followed by our workshop party!
Dinner in the Esalen Dining Hall. Please join us on the lawn after dinner to celebrate our Esalen workshop with song and good cheer! Following our Circle feel free to join us for a closing party after dinner, hosted by Catherine and Scott in the historic Fritz House, for an evening of merriment and fun.

FRIDAY – JULY 19

10:00 am – 12:00 noon

Michael Guy Thompson, Fritjof Capra, Nita Gage
Closing Comments and Audience Discussion
We want to spend this last time together reviewing our five days at Esalen and what it has meant to you. We hope you will also be able to join us again next year for another exciting time at Esalen!

Good-bye!

Don’t forget: check-out is 10:00 am (BEFORE our Friday morning wrap-up). Make sure you are ready if you have booked a return shuttle to the airport.
Fritjof Capra, PhD, physicist and systems theorist, is a founding director of the Center for Ecoliteracy in Berkeley, CA. He serves on the faculty of the Amana-Key executive education program in Sao Paulo, Brazil, is a Fellow of Schumacher College (U.K.), and serves on the Council of Earth Charter International. Dr. Capra is the author of several international bestsellers, including The Tao of Physics (1975), The Web of Life (1996), and The Science of Leonardo (2007). He is coauthor, with Pier Luigi Luisi, of the multidisciplinary textbook, The Systems View of Life (Cambridge University Press, 2014). His new online course (www.capracourse.net) is based on his textbook. He lives in Berkeley, CA.

Fernando Castrillon, PhD, is a personal and supervising psychoanalyst, faculty of the Lacanian School of Psychoanalysis (LSP) and the Psychoanalytic Institute of Northern California (PINC), a licensed clinical psychologist and a Professor in the Community Mental Health Program at the California Institute of Integral Studies, San Francisco. He is founding director of CIIS’s The Clinic Without Walls, an innovative psychotherapy clinic serving mostly working poor and immigrant communities. (www.drcastrillon.com)

Michael Cornwall, PhD, LMFT, has done therapy with people in extreme states since 1980 in medication-free sanctuaries and community settings. He completed his doctoral research on the Jungian sanctuary, Diabasis, and leads Esalen workshops and conferences on extreme states. He blogs on www.madinamerica.com.

Tonya Dowding is a doctoral candidate at the California Institute for Integral Studies, in the PsyD program in Clinical Psychology. Tonya has been studying treatment of extreme states with Gnosis Retreat Center since its founding, and is committed to its mission to provide residential respite for those in crisis.

Laing (2003), and Unfree Associations: Inside Psychoanalytic Institutes (2009). He lived in one of the post-Kingsley Hall, Philadelphia Association households during the 1970s and has retained a special research interest in Laing’s work. His 1980 interview with Laing has recently been published in The Psychoanalytic Review (April, 2013). He lives in Melbourne.

Heather LaFace, PhD is on the adjunct faculty at Antioch University Santa Barbara as well as at Pacific Graduate Institute. She is in private practice in Los Angeles and Orange County where she works within a framework of attachment and relational theory. Her current writing and research interests explore paradigm-shifting connections between neuroscience, philosophy, and social theory, with a special interest in approaching extreme states from a developmental systems orientation. She lives in Los Angeles.

James Norwood is a doctoral candidate at the California Institute for Integral Studies, in the PsyD program in Clinical Psychology. James has been studying treatment of extreme states with Gnosis Retreat Center since its founding, and is committed to its mission to provide residential respite for those in crisis.

Sanford Rosenberg, PhD., is President of Media Research Associates, and has thirty-five years of experience in Media Psychology. He is a clinician, executive coach, educator, and consultant on media projects including movies, games, and the web, applying the methods of dream psychology and personal mythology to media. Dr. Rosenberg specializes in qualitative knowledge-based research and clinical applications, examining the relationship between language, story, structure, symbol, image, emotion, and experience.

Rintal Tal, MD, is a psychiatrist and psychotherapist in private practice in Los Angeles. Her work focuses on minimizing medication management with clients with various conditions, including extreme states, incorporating a range of influences that focus on the transformative aspects of the client-practitioner relationship. She has an abiding interest in alternatives to conventional psychiatry.

Michael Guy Thompson, PhD, received his psychoanalytic training from R. D. Laing and Hugh Crawford at the Philadelphia Association in London, and served as the organization’s administrator from 1973 to 1980. He is Personal and Supervising Analyst and Faculty Member, Psychoanalytic Institute of Northern California, San Francisco, and Adjunct Professor at the California Institute of Integral Studies, in San Francisco. He is the author of numerous journal articles, book chapters, reviews, as well as five books, The Death of Desire: A Study in Psychopathology (1985), The Truth About Freud’s Technique (1994), The Ethic of Honesty (2004), The Legacy of R. D. Laing: An Appraisal of His Contemporary Relevance (2015), and recently, The Death of Desire: An Existential Study in Sanity and Madness (2016), an extensively revised and expanded edition of the original, published by Routledge. He is founder and director of Gnosis Retreat Center, a refuge for people in crisis, modeled on his work with R. D. Laing in London, and lives in Berkeley, CA. His current project is a book on the concept of happiness.

Connor Tindall is a doctoral candidate at the California Institute for Integral Studies, in the PsyD program in Clinical Psychology. Connor has been studying treatment of extreme states with Gnosis Retreat Center since its founding, and is committed to provide residential respite for those in crisis.

Andrew Turkington, RN, LMFT, trained as a psychiatric nurse in the U.K. and later moved to the U.S. where he received his psychoanalytic training from Michael Guy Thompson and associates at Free Association, Inc. in San Francisco. He now teaches Psychiatric Nursing at Unitek College in Hayward, California and is in private practice in Alameda and San Francisco. His interests include phenomenology and scepticism.

Dina Tyler is a psychiatric survivor, trainer and consultant. She works in private practice as a wellness coach and counselor for Big Picture Wellness, a coordinated team of practitioners providing holistic alternatives for people experiencing extreme states. Dina is the Co-Founder, and former Board Member and facilitator of the Bay Area Hearing Voices Network. She was awarded the prestigious Peer Specialist of the Year by the National Council for Behavioral Health in 2015.
